G.O.MS.No. 4.

Dated 28-08-2014
Read the following:

1. Govt.Memo No.8181/CS.II/F&A/CS.II Dept., dt. 5.2.1988
2. CCS&EOS Note No. G2/157/97, dt. 23.12.1997.

O R D E R:

In the reference 1st read above, orders were issued delegating the powers to sanction new fair price shops to Collectors in respect of Districts and to Chief Rationing Officer, Hyderabad in respect of Hyderabad City.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, certain guidelines were prescribed for sanction of new Fair Price Shops.

3. Instances have come to the notice of the Government that some Petitions/Appeals are being received in some cases by Government/Commissioner of Civil Supplies, Telangana State from the Fair Price Shop dealers alleging injustice by Collectors in the creation of new fair price shops or bifurcation of existing shops. As there is no specific provision to entertain such Appeal/Revision, Government after careful examination, has decided that hereafter Appeal and Revision against the orders passed by Collectors in the creation of new fair price shop or bifurcation of existing fair price shop shall be provided as shown here under:

APPEAL:

Any person aggrieved by orders passed by the Collector in respect of Districts and Chief Rationing Officer, Hyderabad in respect of Hyderabad city may, within thirty days from the date of receipt by him/her of such order, prefer appeal against such order, to the Commissioner of Civil Supplies, Telangana State, Hyderabad.

REVISION:

Any person aggrieved by an order of the Commissioner of Civil Supplies under appeal may, within thirty days from the date of communication to him/her of such order, prefer a revision before the Government.

4. The Commissioner of Civil Supplies, Telangana State, Hyderabad, Collectors/Chief Rationing Officer, Hyderabad shall take necessary action accordingly.
